Charlton
High School
Year Book

1936

Dedication

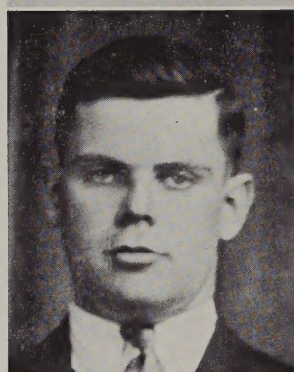

To the memory of Faith Hills Burlingame whose faithful and earnest labors as a teacher in Charlton High School have been an inspiration to all associated with her,
we respectfully dedicate this edition of the Year Book.

Seniors

MARION LINNEA ANDERSON

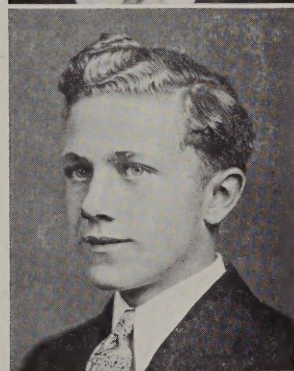

Marion seems to hold a prominent place in school subjects, as well as extra curricular activities. She has been in the play contest during her Freshman year, a member of the Commercial Club for three years and president in her third year. In her Junior year she was president of the Commercial Club and Treasurer of Student Council. She became president of a new club, "The Good Writers Club" during her Senior year. She has participated in Basketball, Glee Club, Chorus and Voice Class sometime throughout her four high school years.

FRED HARRY BARNARD

"Slugger"

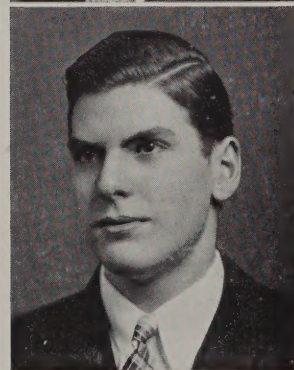

Fred's great passion and pastime is baseball. He has earned a permanent berth as pitcher on the school team. (And he makes a good one, too, we think.) Fred's ambition is not only worthy of a good deal of mention, but is a good model for the oncoming senior class: "To be A Success."

EDGAR BARNES

"Mosey"

"Mosey" has the honor of being the laziest fellow in the senior class, a thing we can not understand. He isn't lazy, he's just waiting to become rich. "Mosey" is a great sports fan, having played in both the basketball and baseball teams. His one great aversion is writing book reviews. "Mosey" has also been president of the Athletic Club during his senior year. Chorus 1; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Student Council 1, 2, 4; Science Club 1, 2; Athletic Club 3, 4; Paper Staff 4.

GEORGE HELMER BERGMARK

"Bergie"

"Bergie" is a member of our class who deserves mention as the one who has done the most for the school. He has been a member of the Dramatic Club, taking part in a number of plays, and also of the Debating Club. He was one of the members of the debating teams which entered the National Forensic League Contest at Oklahoma City. In addition to many extra-curricular activities George is President of the Student Council; Debating Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3; Honor Roll 1, 3; Student Council 1, 4.

JANE KATHRYN BLACK

"Micky"

Jane is a sportswoman. She has been a member of the basketball team for four years and captain during her fourth year; also, a member of the track team for three years. She has been a member of the Dramatic Club (2, 3, 4) member of the Glee Club (2, 3, 4) and has participated in operettas and concerts. She "snatched" away the part of "Patsy" in the Senior play, "The Patsy", and had important parts in "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm", the Dramatic Club Plays.

MYRTIS ARLENE BRACKET

"Ted"

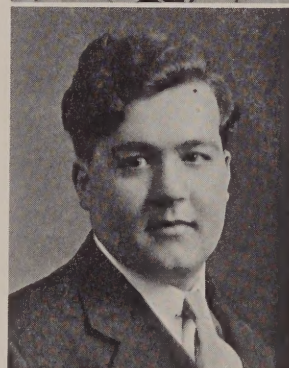

As a result for having a soprano voice, Myrtis has sung many solos, has been a member of the Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4) Voice Class (1, 2, 3, 4) and an active member in the Glee Club Concerts. She has played the cornet four years in the High School Orchestra. She seems to be a character greatly desired in plays, because she has been in the four annual play contests and a member of the Dramatic Club (1, 2, 3, 4) and participated in "Mother Carey's Chickens" and "Meet Uncle Sally."

CHARLES R. BURROWS

"Charlie"

That villainous detective who is always bursting in on the scene unexpectedly is none other than our "Charlie". He has been in the play contests throughout his four years as well as a dramatic club member. "Charlie" is the class treasurer this year. Dramatic Club 1, 4; Travel Club 2; Glee Club 4; Photography Club 3.

LUCILE MARIE BURROWS

"Lu"

"Life", to Lu, is spelled with a capital "L". (Meaning, Laugh). She has been a member of the Dramatic Club and the Orchestra for four years. Lu has done a wonderful job of managing the lunch counter this year. Lu, also, has an enviable record of attendance: not one day has she been absent in four years! Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

ALFRED M. CLARK

"Al—Clarkie"

"Al" is another of those generous souls, known for not saying much; that is, not much that isn't worth saying. He has been a staunch supporter of both track and baseball. As for dramatics, to say the least "Al knocked 'em dead" as "Tom Sawyer" in our class play, Huckleberry Finn. Baseball 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

FRANCES HELEN DIRGINUS

"Fran"

"Fran" is the class dignitary and in times of stress her equanimity is ever apparent. Rather quiet and reserved, her tastes incline towards business and commercial subjects. Commercial Club 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Good Writers Club 4.

BERTHA ISABEL FITTS

Bertha is certainly our class wit. Her "come-backs" are snappier than a "Winchell-Bernie" argument. It behooves us to also mention Bertha's cartoons. Really, they are a hair within putting "Walt Disney" to shame. Bertha's tastes show a trend toward art, and she would like to be an artist.

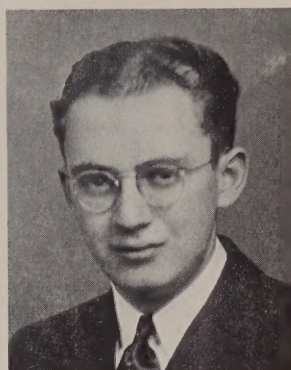

BETTY KAUFMAN

Betty hasn't been with us for her entire four years of high school. During her Junior year she attended Lynn Classical High School. During her Freshman and Sophomore years she belonged to the Travel Club, Debating Club, Chorus, Basketball and the School Orchestra, being an active member in our "Music Night Concerts". Upon her return to Charlton for her Senior year, she became a member of the Debating Club, Dramatic Club, Glee Club, and was a member of the cast for the Senior play, "Huckleberry Finn."

EDWIN LANDINE

"Eddie"

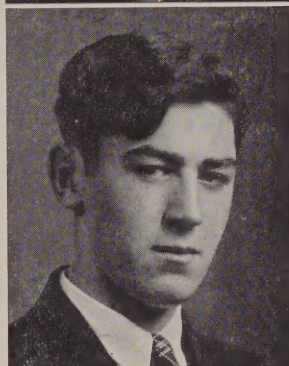

"Eddie" has only been with us during this last year. We sincerely regret that he didn't come to Charlton sooner. Always working hard, being cheerful, donating his time and skill in every way imaginable, "Eddie" has been active in Senior Class affairs, and has been a very conscientious Literary Editor of the "Highlights". His essays have been particularly inspiring, and his vocabulary and knowledge of English are awe-inspiring. Paper Staff 4.

RAYMOND CHARLES MAYNARD

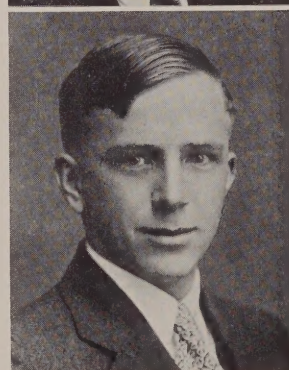

"Ray"

"Ray" tells us he enjoys sleeping quite well, and would be very glad to know how to be able to lie in bed late and still be a success. He is an ardent basketball player and fan. He was a pillar of strength to the team for the best part of the season. "Ray" would like to become a salesman, but prefers being an independent storekeeper. Commercial Club 1; Science Club 2; Athletic Club 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4.

JOHN "BING" MILLER

"Bing", our vice-president, has that enviable quality of "getting along" with others. "Always a smile and a helping hand" characterizes "Bing". His interests incline to sports and poultry. John says in his first year he tried out for track, baseball, and basketball, in his second, the same, and in the third year, he made track, baseball and basketball. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; President 4; Member Student Council 4; Member School Paper Staff 4.

ELIZABETH MARGARET MORANG

"Betty"

Elizabeth tells us her nickname is "Betty", but we think it should be "Dependable Sue". Like your bank account, when all else fails, you can always fall back on "Betty". She is quite interested in sports and business. She has a great desire to run a successful tea room. And it is our opinion that she has the ability to go a long way on the road of Success! Travel Club 1, 2; Voice Class 3, 4; Debating; Track 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Basketball 3, 4.

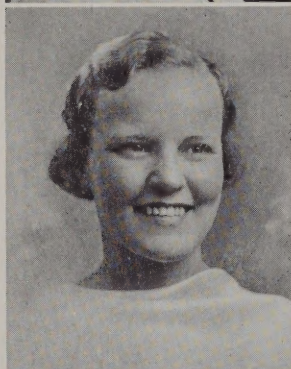

FLORENCE CECELIA SANTIMORE

"Dede"

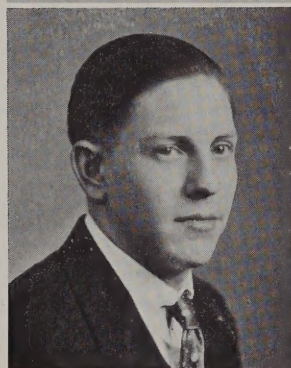

"Dede" is another girl who is interested in business and she was a member and Vice-president of the Commercial Club during her junior year. Evidently she likes music, being a member of the Glee Club for four years. The Science Club (1, 2) and the Dramatic Club (1) probably put a twinkle in her brown eyes, too. She has been secretary of the Good Writers Club during her Senior year and a Reporter for the School paper. She excels in writing and reporting subject: maybe she'll be a reporter some day. Who knows?

CORA I. SILVERBERG

"Ingie"

"Ingie" is the cheerful little bee of the class—always busy, yet not too busy for a cheery word and smile. Her extra-curricular activities are almost too numerous to mention. She has held a position on the Debating Team for four years, was also one of the debaters to go to Oklahoma City, a delegate to Student Council conventions, secretary of the Central Division of Student Councils, Editor of the "High Lights", Junior and Senior Class President, and has kept her place on the Honor Roll for four years.

JOHN FREDERICK STOCKMAN

"Johnnie"

"Johnnie" is a quiet, industrious and likeable lad. John is our star 220-yard trackman, a record he has held for the past three years. When Johnnie's flying feet hit the cinders, the winner is soon known. He is quite interested in commercial training and athletics. Commercial Club 1, 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Athletic Club 3.

EVELYN LOUISE STONE

"Ev"

"Ev" is a pleasant person, very quiet, conscientious and industrious. She was Treasurer during her Sophomore year and Secretary during her Junior and Senior years. She was a Track member in her Junior year. Also, Evelyn has been a member of the Glee Club 2, 3, 4, and a member of the Good Writer's Club, 4.

PETER LONCA TITE

"Pete"

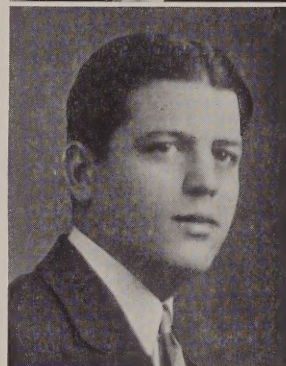

"Pete" is a member of whom we all are proud. An Albanian by birth, "Pete" has traveled, and lived, in a great part of Europe. "Pete" has been educated in Greece and Turkey, and speaks several languages quite fluently. He has overcome the impediment of not being able to speak English in a noteworthy fashion. His report card is a sight to behold. This is especially worthy of praise because "Pete" works eight hours a day for the Charlton Woolen Co. His great passion is photography. He plans to enter the University of Athens after graduation.

CHESTER HOWARD TIBERII

"Chet"

"Chet", a jovial and industrious person, has been prominent in his four years of high school. Debating 1, 3, 4, a star Basketball player 2, 3, 4. Baseball 2, Dramatic Club member 1, 2, 3, 4, Senior plays 2, 4 Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Student Council 2, 4, and a Business Manager for Paper Staff 3, 4. His great ambition is to be a saxophone player. (Maybe a second Guy Lombardo?) Eating fresh strawberry sundaes is "Chet's" favorite pastime.

EVELYN BARBARA TIBERII

"Eve"

"Eve" has a magnetic personal attractiveness. It must be her flashing white teeth, her twinkling brown eyes, or—well I guess it's just Evelyn. "Eve" has been a member of the Glee Club for three years, of the Dramatic Club, three years, and of the Good Writers Club, one year. Basketball aroused her bubbling spirit for two years. She was Treasurer in her Junior year. Her performance in the Senior play will be long remembered. She was an Honor Student during her senior year.

BARBARA MILDRED WHITCOMB

"Bobby"

In speaking of "Bobby", we can say but one thing: "The little girl with the great big heart." She is interested, some in sports, but music seems to be her favorite pastime. It is quite beyond our ken how she finds time for recreation. Always high in scholastic standing, "Bobby" has found time for more than her share of the extra curricular activities. Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 3, 4; Voice Class 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Roll 4; Paper Staff 3, 4.

Senior Class Song

Dear Charlton, we'll be faithful to you
You'll hold a place always dear to our hearts
Our classmates soon will be needing (leaving)
To cherish happiest days of our youth.
Faithful to teachers so true.
Sad that we have to part.
Memories will oft times assail us—
Gleanings of knowledge and truth.
With you as our beacon always,
Lighting the new days to come
We will strive to be worthy
Of our dear Charlton High School Days!

Senior Class Song - Tune: "Lost"

Gone, those Charlton High Schools days
Gone those Charlton care free ways
Lost and gained the old and the new
Friendships bind us, all remind us,
Lost, old books and papers too.
Found a life to be brand all new
Lost these dear old golden days divine
We'll remember for auld lang syne.

Log of the Good Ship '36

September, 1932

We set sail on the four year voyage under the leadership of Captain Alfred Clark, First Mate Chester Tiberii, Second Mate Myrtis Bracket, and Bos'n, Edgar Barnes. Look-out is Miss Bryant.

October

We start working right away and present the play "Christophers Orphans" at the play contest. We gave this on main deck, and although we didn't win the prize, we gave the ship some fine dramatic ability in the forms of George Bergmark, Myrtis Bracket, Eleanor Greene, Chester Tiberii, and Barbara Whitcomb.

April

Two of our members were in the Operetta "Bobby" given by the Glee Club. They were Frances Dirginus and Barbara Whitcomb.

June

We have gained the respect of the whole ship. We are now recognized as a class of unusual ability and determination. Having fulfilled our duties as Freshmen, we are prepared to become Sophomores. At present we are looking forward to a glorious vacation.

September, 1933

After spending three months in a state of semi-consciousness, we resume our voyage with Chester Tiberii, Barbara Whitcomb, Myrtis Bracket, and Evelyn Stone as our officers, and Mrs. Fiske again as our ever watchful Lookout. We are represented in Student Council by Chester Tiberii, Betty Kaufman, and Cora Silverberg. Every sailor of the class was a conscientious worker in some brigade or other, be it Dramatic Club, Commercial Club, Science Club, or Glee Club.

CHARLTON HIGH — 1936 YEAR BOOK

November

This time we gave "You Can't Scare Me" at the play contest. It was a thrilling mystery play, with Chester Tiberii as the ghost.

December

The basketball season starts, and Bing Miller represents the class of '35 at games.

February

Here we find numerous records of exams and quizzes, but the crew of '36 gaily trips through them all with scarcely a quiver.

May

Alfred Clark, Edgar Barnes, and John Miller help Charlton go out to win the baseball laurels. They didn't bring the trophy home for our ship's glory, however.

June

Weather: Hot

General atmosphere: Much restlessness among crew. Finally our superiors on the main deck leave us, and we pause in our cruise for a while.

September, 1934

After a stay of two months at Vacationland, we resumed our voyage with Cora Silverberg as Captain, Chester Tiberii and Evelyn Stone as Mates, and Evelyn Tiberii as Bos'n. For this part of our trip, Mrs. Hammond was our Lookout.

October

This year we gave "Grandpa Goes Hunting" at the play contest, and whether it was due to Mrs. Hammond coaching or to the fact that the judges were just recognizing our ability, we won the trophy for the first time throughout our trip.

December

After a spirited fight with the sailor from the '35 crew, we won the magazine contest, and proved that we're prepared to battle any gale, storm, mutiny, or what have you!

January

Quite a few of the '36 sailors took part in the basketball games on the main deck, and our boys (almost) won the class basketball trophy.

February

We put on the best assembly of the year. Lucille Burrows steals the show with her fainting episode.

May

The Junior Prom! ! Such a bustle of preparations among the crews! But we were well rewarded for all the work we did. Dol Brissette furnished the music for the finest Prom ever (at least, everyone said it was the best and we took their word for it). Decorations were green and pink. This prom raised the prestige of the class to a high degree.

June

We marched at graduation as escorts to the Seniors. This makes us realize our importance more than ever, of course.

Thus ended the third year of our voyage. We retired to Vacationland to fit ourselves for the arduous tasks awaiting us during the fourth and last year of this perilous journey.

CHARLTON HIGH — 1936 — YEAR BOOK

September, 1935

This day began the last year of our great voyage. As Seniors, we soon get organized, and the crew is ready to start work. Heave ho! It looks like smooth sailin' ahead!

Cora Silverberg is again Captain, John Miller is First Mate, Evelyn Stone is Second Mate, and Charles Burrows is Boatswain. Mr. Bruce is permanent Lookout.

October

Stockman, Maynard, Clark, and Miller do praise worthy work in track. We won the inter-class track (trophy) banner.

November 8

We gave the play at the play contest. As usual, Myrtis Bracket, Eleanor Greene, Chester Tiberii, and George Bergmark are in prominent roles.

December

We won the magazine contest with scarcely any effort, the seventh grade being the only class to offer any competition.

We sold cards at Christmas time, calling upon the townspeople to notice the beauty, the inexpensiveness, the high quality of the cards we had for sale.

January

Jane Black, Barbara Whitcomb, Elizabeth Morang, Cora Silverberg are on the girls' basketball team, while the class of '36 has Miller, Tiberii, Barnes, and Maynard representing her on the boys' varsity team.

February

We gave the all-important Senior Play, "Huckleberry Finn," with George Bergmark as Huck, and Alfred Clark as Tom Sawyer. Others who took part in this play were: Myrtis Bracket, Eleanor Greene, Bertha Fitts, Betty Kaufman, Charles Burrows, Chester Tiberii, Evelyn Tiberii, and Cora Silverberg. Although the play was presented in the midst of the worst weather of the year, between the snow storms, it was very successful.

April 22

We had our pictures taken! It being the last time we will sail together, we feel that we would like to have a remembrance of our dear old classmates. For the sentiment of the thing, you know. We wish someone would do something to eliminate the difficulty in finding something nice to say about somebody's picture.

May 29

We plan to give our assembly an amateur hour, with Mr. Bruce as Major Bowes, and a cow bell for a gong.

June

Land sighted! The crew is making final preparations for landing. There is something sad in the way all the teachers gaze at us. They feel perhaps that they will never see the like of us again. That is true. Such genius is unusual.

June 18

This is the date set for graduation. Cora Silverberg, Myrtis Bracket, George Bergmark and Chester Tiberii are chosen commencement speakers.

June 20

The night of reception. The last time we Seniors will have a social event together as high school students.

This is the end of the voyage of the Class of '36. It is time for us to leave our ship. We close by giving a word of encouragement to the Freshmen—the time will come when they too will be graduating; a bit of advice to the Sophomores—don't be too critical of the Freshmen; and a reminder to the Juniors—our success was achieved only through hard endeavor which you must strive to imitate.

Class Prophecy

I, Barbara Whitcomb, have accomplished the one thing I have wished to do since I was a student in Charlton High School; that is, to become a concert singer. I have studied music for ten years and I have satisfied my ambition for four years.

It is now June 19, 1950. Fourteen years have passed since I graduated from Charlton High School. It is a lovely summer evening, and the twilight is tracing its pale blue lights across the sky, and the sun has left its rosy hues on the distant horizon.

I was alone in my rose arbor and my thoughts strayed back to the time when I was a Senior in High School. I looked above my head, and I saw a lovely rose. There seemed to be writing on a petal. I picked the rose and on closer observation I saw on the first petal a name which looked like Lucile Burrows. Lucile is now working as a private secretary in the Chrysler building in New York City.

And being still curious, I turn the next petal and I see that this certain person has studied television, and is now a famous radio announcer. It seems strange that Fred Barnard should be a radio announcer; strange, because he wasn't a very talkative person!

As I turn the next petal, I see a well known name! Cora Silverberg, who is now an Executive Secretary for the President of the United States. Leave it to Cora to accomplish what she sets out to do.

On the next petal is written: In front of a building in a large city can be seen a long line of children. They seem to be happy, because they're going to the dentist's. You wouldn't think they would have smiles on their faces, would you? But they know Edwin Landine, the painless dentist, will not hurt them, because he uses hypnotism for an anaesthetic.

And now the next petal: One of the most popular musical organizations of the country is a saxophone orchestra of fifty pieces. "Great oaks from little acorns grow", and this orchestra is the result of Chester Tiberii's constant practicing on his "Sax" years ago.

As I turn the next petal I see: Peter Tite has studied at Athens University and is now a famous doctor in Europe.

And now we see: A blond-haired girl, who is interested in the education and restoration of the American Indian. My dear Marion Anderson, didn't you see enough Indian War Dances in the Senior Room, especially during those intervening minutes just before the English teacher got down the stairs to our room?

Remember the roads that wend their way to Podunk and Brookfield? Well, Myrtis Bracket remembers them, and likes them so well, that she is still traveling them with a tall man by her side. They have entered the holy state of matrimony.

On the next petal: Now the people of Charlton who like to dance can do the latest dance steps, because they have a very efficient teacher in George Bergmark, who used to like dancing so well, if I remember correctly.

Upon turning the next petal: Among the other vocations in the class of '36, we find the ministry. I see a tall man, who sits with clasped hands and upturned face, as if praying. Who is it? Alfred Clark.

On the next petal: Social work has taken Betty Kaufman to Austin, Texas, and she is making a great success of it.

And now: Bertha Fitts has improved her cartoons and sketches, and is a great artist. Her paintings are exhibited throughout the world.

Turning the next petal: A great trackman, John Stockman, is to be a competitor in the great Olympics to be held in Germany this year. Remember his 220-yard dash?

And now we see: A second "Wallace Beery" in Charles Burrows. He is in Hollywood making a picture called, "The Widow's Mite".

And still another petal: Charles Burrows and Betty Morang must meet often in California, because Elizabeth Morang owns a large restaurant where the people of Hollywood go to dine and dance.

And still another: Florence Santimore and Frances Dirginus are still intimate friends, and they have obtained positions as secretaries in the state house.

The next petal says: John Miller has studied Forestry Conservation at Massachusetts State College, and has been sent to the vast woods of Canada.

On the next: Evelyn Stone is employed by the New England Telegraph Company. She is saying "Number, Please," in the state of Florida.

On the next petal: We now have a special taxi-cab company run by women, which caters to young people. When you want to go out, but need a chaperone, the slogan of the company is: "Every chauffeur a chaperone." Jane Black started this company, and thought it would be a great aid to the commonwealth.

On the next petal: Raymond Maynard has trained fowls on his farm. He spends his time teaching them tricks. I wonder if they can play baseball? Edgar Barnes is a competent player. It seems he played in the World Series for the St. Louis Cardinals.

On the last petal: Last but not least is a well known hair dresser in New York City. The person is none other than Evelyn Tiberii.

I have spent the evening dreaming of the by-gone days. The rose has drooped and the petals drop one by one as the book of the past closes.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1936, upon leaving Charlton High School, feel that we must warn the future Senior Class to be careful of law and legal matters, especially your Last Will and Testament. The Supreme Court might rule it unconstitutional. Our Class Will and Testament, having been written with due regard to the principles of law and having been carefully inspected, the following is willingly bequeathed to the class of 1937:

I, Fred Barnard, leave my ability to talk so much and say so little to Arlene Smith.

I, Marion Anderson, leave my last name to Ruth Anderson.

I, Raymond Maynard, leave my "A" in Stenography to Alma Stevens.

I, Myrtis Bracket, leave my soprano voice to Harris Prouty.

I, John Stockman, leave my sterling track ability to Harold Kingston.

I, Jane Black, leave my basketball suit, No. 5, to Roslyn Oliver.

I, Edgar "Mosey" Barnes, leave my curly hair and my art of blushing to Louis Prunier.

I, Lucile Burrows, leave to Marjorie Morang the difficult problem of managing the Lunch Counter and preventing the girls from interrupting history class every day.

I, "Pete" Tite, leave my seven languages to Helen Reynolds.

I, Betty Morang, leave my ability to make points in track for Charlton High School to Helen Siira.

I, "Chet" Tiberii, leave a word of warning to Tony Laconto, "Don't go to sleep during English Class!"

I, Frances Dirginus, leave my typing ability to Barbara Kingston.

I, Charles Burrows, leave my ability to eat Eskimo pies to Mildred Philips and Dorothy Cook.

I, Cora Silverberg, leave my loyalty, leadership, scholarship, and citizenship to Virginia Forkey and Elsie Bates.

I, Edwin Landine, leave my ability to learn French poems to Evelyn Davidson.

I, Evelyn Stone, leave my straight hair to Dorothy Barnard.

I, Alfred Clark, leave to John Hunt the pleasure of antagonizing the girls in his class.

I, Bertha Fitts, give to Eleanor Davis, the opportunity to write poems for a pastime and for the School paper.

I, George Bergmark, leave my acting ability to Dwight Bond.
I, Florence Santimore, leave my liking for United States History to Lucy Allen.
I, "Bing" Miller, leave my singing during Glee Club to Earl Saunders.
I, Betty Kaufman, leave my fashionable dress, and auburn hair to Mary McQuarrie.
I, Barbara Whitcomb, leave my perseverance for studying and School Spirit to Henry Hammond.
I, Evelyn Tiberii, leave my desire to become a hairdresser to Leona Menoche.

Please take this stream of jokes as meant
For on each ripple our love is sent
We've had these laughs all, just in fun.
And so, "Here's luck", to each and everyone.

Evelyn Tiberii

Junior Class of 1937

The Junior Class consists of twenty-six members, the officers being: President, Leona Menoche; Vice-President, Louis Prunier; Secretary, Helen Siira; Treasurer, Harris Prouty and Class Adviser, Mrs. Hammond.

In the Senior division of the Play Contest, we presented "The Invisible Clue", coached by Mrs. Hammond. We won the cup, and this being the third time we had won it, the cup became ours permanently.

The Juniors presented a Lincoln Day Assembly with Captain William King as the guest speaker.

Besides participating in basketball, baseball, and prize speaking, several of our members hold positions on the paper staff.

We feel quite proud of one of our members, Virginia Forkey, who accompanied the students, who represented Charlton High at the National Speaking Contest at Oklahoma City.

The Junior Prom was conducted on May 29. Harold R. Wheeler's orchestra of Marlboro furnished music.

Respectfully submitted,

Helen Siira,
Secretary.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Sophomore Class of 1938

The officers of the Sophomore class are President, Elinor Sinclair; Vice-President, Shirley Reynolds; Secretary, Ruth Eastman; Treasurer, Adeline Tiberii, and Class Adviser, Mr. Madaus.

There are twenty-two members of the Sophomore class at present. Five members left during the year. They are Ralph Ferguson, Hazel Putnam, Marion Potter, Emma Materas, and William Vitali.

The class presented a one act play in the Play Contest "An Amateur Hamlet" with Mr. Madaus as coach.

Robert Bergmark, a member of the Sophomore Class won the State Championship for humorous speakers. He went to Oklahoma City to compete in the National Contest as a humorous speaker and debater. A Sophomore boy has been chosen as baseball manager for this year. He is Clesson Robbins.

The class has presented one assembly which was based on our study of World History.

Respectfully submitted,

Ruth Eastman,
Secretary.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Sitting: Eleanor Cheney, Marjorie Meservey, Donald Converse, Vice-President, Warren Miller, President, Irma Siira, Secretary, Ethel Pratt, Treasurer, Agnes Kestigian, Octavia Gouin.

Freshman Class of 1939

Our class has twenty-seven members.

The present class officers are: President, Warren Miller; Vice-President, Donald Converse; Secretary, Irma Siira; Treasurer, Ethel Pratt; and Class Adviser, Mrs. Fiske.

Our class has participated in various activities including dramatics, basketball, and baseball.

At the annual play contest we presented a play "His First Girl" which won first prize in the Junior division of the contest. Two members of our class took part in the state prize speaking contest at Williamsburg.

Both girls and boys took part in basketball and many of the boys play baseball.

We are looking forward to our next three years and we hope that they may be as successful as was our first year.

Respectfully submitted,

Irma Siira,
Secretary.

GRADE 8

Second Row: (Standing), Clarence Smith, Anna Babineau, Anna O'Connor, Gurli Anderson, Pauline Bedard, May Clark, Eva Blanchard, Clara Saunders, Leona Wilson, Florence Cheney, Russell Ferguson.

Third Row: William Meservey, Arthur Robidoux, Gordon Nightingale, George Anderson, Dwight Harris, Earl Wolfenden, Antronig Kestigian, Marvin Clark.

Absent when picture was taken: John Nabozny, Paul Piehl, and Pauline Piehl.

Eighth Grade--Class of 1940

The class of 1940 started in the fall with thirty-three members. Since then we have lost three of our members. One has moved to another town, one has entered the Southbridge Trade School, and one is at home.

Our class officers are: President, Clara Saunders; Vice-President, Mary Butler; Secretary, Gertrude Reynolds; and Treasurer, Vina Wilcox.

In the fall we entered the Junior Play Contest. We presented the play "The Silver Arrow." Although we did not win the prize, the class had reason to be pleased with its performance.

At Christmas time we had a home-room program. Poems were read by members of the class and refreshments were also served.

We entered the spelling bee given by the High School. Each class had two contestants. Our contestants did very well.

Members of the class put on an assembly for Patriots Day. It was very successful.

We are to produce a one-act play at the evening exhibition of drawing and music. The play is "Danger at the Door." The members of the cast are Clara Saunders, Gertrude Reynolds, Arthur Robidoux, William Meservey, Eva Prunier, Mary Butler, Pauline Piehl, Beverly Davis, Florence Cheney, John Nabozny, and Russell Ferguson.

Respectfully submitted,

Gertrude Reynolds.

Secretary.

Second Row: Marion Stone, Laura Bond, Arthur Kestigian, Harold Perry, Robert Bostrom, Edward Gouin, Charles MacQuarrie, Courtland Moir, Robert Clark, Carl Blomberg, Leopold Castell, Gordon Fountain, Bruce Lamprey, Claire Robidoux, Faith Taylor.

Third Row: Nora Casey, Leona Burlingame, Helen Wilson, Stella Kupiec, Kathleen Harris, Katherine Morang, Marguerite Maynard, Bernice Johnson, Vivian Bachand, Claire Peloquin, Clara Babineau, Lea Prunier, George Lamprey.

Seventh Grade--Class of 1941

In September 1935, the seventh graders, a group of forty-nine, made their debut in the Charlton High School. The following were chosen as class officers: President, Norman Clark; Vice-President, Ralph Foscett; Secretary, Mary Sullivan; and Treasurer, Barbara White. Immediately the class voted to start a financial fund from which it could draw to pay for current expenses. Most of the members felt that a penny a month would be within the means of all. There is a balance of $2.64 in the treasury at the present time.

The seventh grade took part in many activities during the year among which were the one-act play "Aunt Hetty" and the magazine contest. The high light was the assembly program with "Old MacDonald" in which many barn yard impersonations were given. The class is proud to say that many of its members contributed poems to the school paper. On Exhibition Day the Dramatic Club of Grade 7 will present a comedy entitled "Junior" with Ralph Foscett playing the leading role.

Even though the seventh graders are the youngest in the school, they had the honor of having fourteen members on the Honor Roll, the largest number to keep the good record.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Sullivan,
Secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Sitting: Barbara Whitcomb, Cora Silverberg, George Bergmark, Leona Menoche, Elsie Bates.

Second Row: Arthur Robidoux, Lucille Burrows, Elinor Sinclair, Marion Anderson, Bernice Johnson, Clara Saunders, Warren Clark.

Third Row: Mr. Mushroe, Warren Miller, Chester Tiberii, Clesson Robbins, Edgar Barnes, John Miller.

Student Council

The officers of the Student Council are: President, George Bergmark; Vice-President, Cora Silverberg; Secretary, Leona Menoche; Treasurer, Elsie Bates.

The Seniors are represented in the Council by George Bergmark, Cora Silverberg, Chester Tiberii, Barbara Whitcomb, Marion Anderson, Lucille Burrows, Edgar Barnes, and John Miller. The Juniors in the Council include Elsie Bates and Leona Menoche. The Sophomores are: Elinor Sinclair, Adeline Tiberii and Clesson Robbins. The Freshmen are represented by Warren Miller, the eighth grade, by Clara Saunders and Arthur Robideau and seventh grade, by Norman Clark and Bernice Johnson. There are in all eighteen members in the Council. Each member represents some important activity.

The Student Council has been very busy this year. It changed the Student Council Ticket. It has discussed the National Honor Society. It has bought a new electric stove for the lunch counter. It has successfully sponsored the two play contests, the magazine contest, the track, basketball, and baseball teams. It helped to finance the debating trip to Oklahoma City.

George Bergmark and Leona Menoche were sent as delegates, and Cora Silverberg went as a representative to the State Convention of Student Council Bodies held in Beverly, on April 17. Cora Silverberg's term as Secretary of the Central Division of Associated Student Council Bodies of Massachusetts expired at this meeting. Leona Menoche was elected for the coming year, so that twice in succession this honor has come to Charlton High School.

The Student Council is one of the finest organizations in school and it is doing more than any other one factor to produce good citizens for the town of Charlton.

SCHOOL PAPER

Sitting: Leona Menoche, Barbara Whitcomb, Cora Silverberg, Editor-in-Chief, Elsie Bates, Assistant Editor, Mary McQuarrie.

Standing: Edwin Landine, Chester Tiberii, Edgar Barnes, Clesson Robbins, Gerald Mann, John Miller, Harris Prouty, Mr. George Madaus, Adviser.

School Paper Staff

The staff of the "Highlights" was organized this year as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	Cora Silverberg
Assistant editor-in-chief	Elsie Bates
Business Manager	Leona Menoche
Assistant Business Manager	Elinor Davis
Literary Editor	Edwin Landine
Alumni Editor	John Miller
Exchange Editor	Barbara Whitcomb
School News	Mary McQuarrie
Sports Editor	Clesson Robbins
Jokes Editor	Edgar Barnes
Arts Editors	Gerald Mann
	Harris Prouty

The school paper has been a very successful venture this year. We have edited two issues of the "Highlights", as well as this graduation number. The first two issues of the paper we printed here in the high school, under the guidance of Mrs. Hammond, and Mr. Madaus, our adviser.

We wish to express our appreciation to the pupils and to the townspeople who have supported the "Highlights" and have helped the staff to make it a worth while publication.

DEBATING TEAM

First Row: Robert Bergmark, Cora Silverberg, Virginia Forkey, George Bergmark.
Second Row: Mrs. Fiske, Coach, Ethel Pratt, Elizabeth Morang, Mary McQuarrie, Chester Tiberii.

Debating Team

The members of the Charlton High School debating team this year were Virginia Forkey, Elizabeth Morang, Ethel Pratt, Mary McQuarrie, George Bergmark, Chester Tiberii, and Cora Silverberg.

As a member of the Quaboag Valley Debating League, Charlton debated with the high school teams of Warren, Leicester, and Spencer. The question this year was, Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a complete system of medical care available to all citizens at public expense.

This fall Charlton became a member of the National Forensic League and we obtained a charter. The Worcester County district tournament was held in Charlton on Saturday, February 8. Charlton won first place at this tournament, in which the schools of Warren, Shrewsbury, and North High School of Worcester were represented.

The state contest took place in Williamsburg on Friday and Saturday, March 20 and 21. At this tournament, the affirmative team was represented by Cora Silverberg and Robert Bergmark, while the negative team was composed of Virginia Forkey and George Bergmark. Charlton won second place at this tournament. Besides winning in debating, Robert Bergmark placed first in humorous reading.

The national tournament took place in Oklahoma City, May 4 to May 8. The same pupils who went to Williamsburg represented Charlton in the national contest. Charlton won one debate with Arkansas at this contest.

BASEBALL TEAM

Front Row: Edgar Barnes, Harris Prouty, Alfred Clark, John Hunt, Captain, Arnold Laconto, Clesson Robbins, Manager.

Second Row: Louis Prunier, John Miller, Warren Clark, Robert Maynard, Fred Barnard, Warren Miller, Raymond Moulton, Mr. Bruce, Coach.

Baseball Team of 1936

Despite the fact that the condition of our field makes it necessary to play all of our games out of town, this year's team looks as though it will finish the season with a respectable record.

The team has shown the capability of playing first class ball, mainly through their performances of team work in Rutland, where they won 6-3, and in Leicester, where they won 12-7.

The outlook for a successful season is particularly bright this year, because of the splendid team work of all the members of the squad, who have given splendid support to the sterling pitching abilities of Fred Barnard.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Sitting: Edgar Barnes, Harold Kingston, Arnold Laonto, Captain, Chester Tiberii, John Miller.

Standing: Mr. Bruce, Coach, Earl Bullard, Assistant Manager, Donald Converse, Warren Miller, Harris Prouty, Warren Clark, Raymond Moulton, Cleson Robbins, Manager.

Basketball Team 1935-36

Greatly handicapped by the graduation of his regulars, Mr. Bruce opened his season with a bad outlook. And bad it proved to be! Building a winning team with inexperienced players was no easy task. It is no reflection on either Mr. Bruce or the players to say that the team did not enjoy an entirely successful season. However we did succeed in "dubbing" Brookfield twice in succession, and the Nichols' Jay Vees. Captain Arnold Laonto chalked up 127 points for high scoring position.

Our prediction is that next season will prove a howling success.

Track Team of 1935

Three cheers for the track team! They have put Charlton on the map again. We were represented at three meets: the annual Charlton-Brookfield meet, the Spencer meet, and the state meet at Amherst. John Stockman brought honor to the team and himself by winning the 220-yard dash at Amherst. The Charlton lads did a great deal to put the Brookfield boys down, but the lassies fell through.

Stockman also led the relay team to third place at Spencer, closing what we would term a successful season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Sitting: Betty Morang, Jane Black, Mary McQuarrie, Captain, Barbara Whitcomb, Evelyn Tiberii.

Second Row: Agnes Kestigian, Marjorie Meservey, Elia Santilli, Shirley Reynolds, Jean Stevens, Leda Sereduk, Helene Reynolds.

Third Row: Ethel Pratt, Assistant Manager, Cora Silverberg, Manager, Adeline Tiberii, Assistant Manager, Miss Manzi, Coach.

Girls' Basketball Team

More girls participated in basketball this year than ever before. Although the girls won few games this season, they played well and in most cases were defeated only by a margin of a few points. The Seniors on the team were: Jane Black, Elizabeth Morang, Barbara Whitcomb, Evelyn Tiberii, and Cora Silverberg, manager. The Juniors included Mary McQuarrie, captain, Helen Reynolds. The Sophomores were: Hazel Putnam, Shirley Reynolds, Jean Stevens, Marion Potter, and Adeline Tiberii, assistant manager. The Freshmen who played were: Agnes Kestigan, Gertrude Johnson, Margery Merservey, Elia Santilli, and Ethel Pratt, assistant manager. The teams with whom games were played included those of Spencer, Oxford, Brookfield, Rutland, and Holden.

Alumni News

The paper staff regrets the omission of the names and the addresses of some of the former members of Charlton High School. We would be very thankful if anyone would inform us of changes of name or address of any member so that we will be able to make the change in the next year book.
